ADDENDA AND CORRIGENDA SLIP TO LAND REVENUE RULES.

Substitute the following for the last 3 paragraphs of Rule 43 of Land Revenue Rules beginning from "Land containing sandal trees, etc..... ..":—

1. Before any land containing a large number of sandal trees is granted for cultivation, the Forest Department shall be consulted and if there is a large number of grown up sandal trees distributed all over the survey number, such survey number shall be reserved for Government. If there is a growth only in a portion of the survey number and the remaining portion does not contain many trees, such remaining portion may be granted for cultivation after being formed into a separate survey number, provided the extent does not fall below the minimum for the tract In special cases where it is possible to mark off the portion containing sandal trees and reserve it, such portion, even if below the prescribed minimum, may, with the sanction of the Deputy Commissioner, be sub-divided and reserved to Government, the remaining portion of the survey number being alone granted for cultivation with a proportionate reduction of assessment.

2. For the purpose of this rule, any land which contains 10 or more sandal trees of over 12 inches girth per acre, shall be considered as having a large number of sandal trees and such land shall be reserved. Lands containing a smaller number of trees and those containing a sprinkling of green plants may be given out for cultivation.

3. Lands containing sandal trees when granted for occupation shall always be sold by auction and the upset price to be levied shall be calculated so as to include the present value of the bonus that would be payable to the occupant in respect of such trees under the orders of Government for the time being in force in this behalf.

By Order,
N. MADHAVA RAO,
Chief Secretary to Government.
